

Staff Roles – Examples

Chevy

Primary Role : Project Manager
Secondary Role: Business Analyst

- In charge of project scheduling, execution and resource management
- Main point of contact between client, supervisor and team
- Responsible and accountable for the team's activity
- Works closely with all members to have a high level of the project and its current status

Andrew

Primary Role : Lead Developer
Secondary Role: Usability Analyst

- Leads technology research to determine the most appropriate technologies for project implementation
- Trains team developers in implementation techniques and code quality control
- Works closely with the System Analyst to implement system architecture and UI
- Responsible and accountable for in-code and code related documentation, ensuring human readability

Boon Liang

Primary Role : Business Analyst
Secondary Role: Project Manager

- Assesses the client's requirements and strategy for the application
- Works closely with PM to develop the project strategy
- Raises queries to client concerning their needs and processes
- Works close with Usability Analyst to write and manage project documentations (Wiki, SVN docs, User Guide)

Willis

Primary Role : Usability Analyst
Secondary Role: Systems Analyst

- Responsible for developing the team's testing strategy
- Works closely with the Business Analyst to understand the use case scenarios
- Develop, facilitate, and follow up from the execution of the UAT in the stipulated phases
- Works close with Business Analyst to write and manage project documentations (Wiki, SVN docs, User Guide)

Vijay

Primary Role : Systems Analyst
Secondary Role: Lead Developer

- Designs the project's software architecture based on the clients requirements
- Works closely with the Business Analyst to align implemented systems with client's needs and processes
- Designs mock ups of the UI and works closely with Lead Developer and Usability Analyst in the UI implementation
- Assists Business Analyst in maintaining design and architecture related documentation

Staff Roles – Examples

